SCHEDULE

Proceedings of the Board

An Act to establish a National Agricultural Land Development Authority to provide, among other things, strategic public support for land development.

[7th May, 1992]

[Commencement.]

1. Establishment of the National Agricultural Land Development Authority

There is hereby established in the Presidency an authority to be known as the National Agricultural Land Development Authority (in this Act referred to as "the Authority") which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

2. Membership of the Governing Board

- (1) The management of the Authority established by section I of this Act shall be vested in a Governing Board (in this Act referred to as "the Board") which shall consist of a chairman and the following other members, that is-
 - (a) a representative of the Federal Universities of Agriculture to be appointed in rotation;
 - (b) the permanent secretaries responsible for-
 - (i) Agriculture;
 - (ii) Labour;
 - (c) the Director-General, National Commission for Women;
 - (d) the President, Nigeria Labour Congress;
 - (e) three persons chosen on their individual merit; and
 - (f) the executive secretary.
- (2) The provisions of the Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the proceedings of the Board and the other matters contained therein.

3. Objects of the Authority

Subject to this Act, the objectives of the Authority shall be to-

- (a) provide strategic public support for land development which presently constitutes a major infrastructural development bottleneck hindering the development of viable economic farm holdings;
- (b) promote and support optimum utilisation of Nigeria's rural land resources for accelerated production of food and fibre;

- (c) encourage and support economic-size farm holdings and promote consolidation of scattered fragment holdings to generate net income from agriculture which is aimed at sustaining living standards above the poverty line and thereby narrow rural-urban income inequalities;
- (d) encourage the evolution of economic-size rural settlements that will reap the economies of scale in the provision of social infrastructures;
- (e) provide gainful employment opportunities for rural people, raise rural incomes and improve on the general living standards in rural areas;
- (f) expand productive capacity in agriculture and regain export capability in traditional and nontraditional crops;
- (g) contribute significantly towards the attainment of a national food and fibre self-reliance, selfsufficiency and national food security through optimum utilisation of available abundant land resources which ensures minimum soil and environmental degradation, while simultaneously promoting sustainable agriculture;
- (h) facilitate appropriate cost-effective mechanisation of agriculture; and
- (i) institute strategic land use planning schemes to deal with major allocation problems including the creation and location of forest and grazing reserves and other areas with restricted use, and the relocation of population, should this be necessitated by localised population explosion, pressure or national disasters.

4. Tenure of office of members

- (1) The chairman of the Board shall hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for reappointment for a further period of three years and no more.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a member of the Board other than an ex officio member shall, subject to the pleasure of the President, hold office for a period of three years from the date of his appointment and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of three years and no more.

5. Removal from office of members of the Board

- (1) The President may, at any time, remove any member of the Board from office if the Minister is of the opinion that it is not in the interest of the Board for the member to continue in office and shall notify the member in writing to that effect.
- (2) Where the Board is satisfied that the continued presence on the authority of any member is not in the interest of the nation or the interest of the Board it may recommend to the President that the member concerned be removed from his office; and if the President, after making such inquiries as he considers necessary, approves of the recommendation he may in writing declare the office of the member vacant.

6. Functions of the Board

Without prejudice to the provisions of section 3 of this Act, the Board, shall subject to the overriding guiding rule that land is owned by the community and is being developed by members of the community on its behalf-

- (a) acquire suitable tracts of land in various parts of Nigeria for purposes of development;
- (b) develop and parcel out any land into economic-size farm plots and assign such plots to selected farmers to own and manage for their own benefit;
- (c) acquire and consolidate scattered, fragmented farm holdings and re-parcel the consolidated units into economic-size holdings for re-distribution to their owners and such other persons within the locality who can conveniently benefit from the scheme;
- (d) supervise, monitor and assist in the overall operation and management of the scheme and assist in the organisation of the farmer-participants in projects specified under the scheme;
- (e) provide general extension support services and technical information on soil types, land, capability or suitability for various agricultural purposes including livestock and arable farming;

- (f) assist, engage in and advise the participants in the scheme on all aspects of land conservation and land degradation control at the project sites in particular and, in appropriate circumstances, outside the project sites;
- (g) assist the participants in the scheme on the method of acquisition or procurement of production inputs and in the development or provision of appropriate technology for processing, where feasible, of farm produce and in the marketing and disposal of the processed farm produce;
- (h) engage in or assist with on-farm and off-farm training of farmer-participants and project management personnel;
- (i) designate and delineate protected areas (for biodiversity or their fragility);
- (j) allocate land for large scale farming in a manner which allows peasant farmers to have continued access to land sufficient for their needs in the face of rapid population growth;
- (k) assist large scale farmers, where possible in the development of their lands; provided such services are on a commercial basis;
- (l) develop a code of sound land management procedures for all land resources development proposals in order to ensure that they conform with national needs and policy of minimising land degradation and enhancing land and other resource conservation;
- (m) assist in the provision of social infrastructural facilities for the emergent growth-centres at or around the project sites; and
- (n) engage in any other up-stream or down-stream activity which, in the opinion of the Board are incidental to or necessary for the attainment of the objectives of the Authority,

7. Power of the Board

The Board shall have power to-

- (a) define the management scheme of the programme;

- (b) screen the applicants and select the participants using guidelines and regulations formulated pursuant to this Act;
- (c) reject any land donated to it which in its opinion is not suitable for reasons of size or quality or for any other reason whatsoever;
- (d) select the appropriate enterprise for each project site in consultation with the local community; and
- (e) enforce the provisions of section 6 of this Act and grant approval for any land development programme proposal if it is satisfied that such development does not offend the provisions of this section.

8. Duty to liaise with relevant institutions

In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Board shall liaise with the universities, relevant research institutes, Federal and State Ministries and agencies as well as relevant Local Government Departments and agencies for co-operation and assistance in furtherance of the Authority's functions as specified in this Act, in such a manner as to avoid duplication of functions.

10. Donation of lands for development

Lands for development by the Authority shall be donated by the State Governments, Local Governments or the participating community and such lands shall be free of any encumbrances and no compensation of any form whatsoever shall be paid by the Authority, agency of the Government of the Federation or any other body on behalf of the Authority in that regard.
